Interview Trainer

QUESTIONS ABOUT THE TRAINER:

Ayom, Hub: Ataka, participant, and organized trainings
Schwierige internet Verbindung kaputtes telefon

• What is your professional background?
Student undergraduate, Ataka Hub, degree in business administration, financial management, training in public relationship
Project capac
• Which topics have your workshops?
Repair cafe, torches and electronic devices, online trainings for Highschool, how practical tools are used in schools, introduced in schools, preparation for high school

• Do you prepare yourself in the topic of the workshop or do you rely on your experience?
both

QUESTIONS REGARDING THE PARTICIPANTS:

• How are the participants (e.g. school kids, adults, etc.)?
School kids and adults

• What are the numbers of participants?
School: big number, not count two classes

• Is assistant needed (e.g. a lot of attendance)?
We did as a team, 4 member

• How do you find / invite participants?
Mostly invitation, reader, tell ppl around the hub thats some Things are going on

QUESTIONS REGARDING THE VENUE:

• In which venues, or places does the workshop take place?
Not at hub, coz not so big, hire some hotels in town, pay for drinks and food

• Which materials do you use (e.g. tools, wood, etc.)?
We have tools for the cafe, tools kit, electronic stuff to exchange

• Is an internet connection needed and is it possible?
Not bad, to have one, only the team needs internet

• Which kind of media (projector, flip-chart, whiteboard, handouts, etc.) is used?
Flip chart, projector, handouts ift the demand it, no capacity to give out the booklets, if there is they would give

• Are there snacks and beverages provided?

QUESTIONS REGARDING THE WORKSHOP / TRAINING

• Can you describe how your last workshop / training was planed, step by step?
Wrote a request to r0g to get funds
Sit down rent the hotel, do calculations Getränke, etc.
Legen fest wie viel Leute kommen
Legen den tag fest, training fängt an

• What were the challenges?
Lack of funding, transport for ppl, different Classes, internet connectivity, phones,

• What would it make easier for you to plan a workshop / training?
More money, idea where to get the funding
Donor spender, müssten wir kennen um gezielt anfragen zu stellen, remote area schwierig

• Do you provide material about the workshop for the participants (e.g. handouts, blueprints, summaries tables / charts with specific informations, etc.)?

• If you provide material, in which form do you provide it (e.g. printed on paper, online, participants have to make their own nodes)?

• How long does a workshop usually take?
Mostly 2 to 3 hours

• Is there a certificate for participating the workshop / training?
If possible

• Do you use games or similar things before and in between the lessons? (e.g. to find out about other participants, loosening technics, etc.)
If its possible, some funs

QUESTIONS REGARDING THE HUBS

• How ist the training organized inside the hub?

Different trainings, but all the trainings as a team

• Are the trainings related to each other, or do they build on each other?

QUESTIONS REGARDING THE FUNDING:

• How is the workshop / training financed?
R0g agency, nothing als

• How are the materials for the workshop / training financed (e.g. Participants have to pay for their own)?
Completely free

• If there is any funding, does it require documentation and how do you do that?
Yes a report, mostly we write it, with pictures and videos and receipts